John Hillaby : John Hillaby's London (Paladin Books) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised John Hillaby's London (Paladin Books):

John Hillab has travelled from the fringe of the Arctic to equatorial Africa but here prove that, to the inquisitive pedestrian city streets are equally ripe for exploration! This alternative guidebook is crammed with fascinating observation of London's history and people. Alongside the architectural scenery a surprising array of flora and fauna flourishes, especially on the banks of the Capital s most precious asset the River Thames. In his itinerant's narrative Hillaby covers everything from king to cabbies, with inexhaustible curiosity and tireless feet!
