Pedro F. Marcelino, Slawko Waschuk : Junior Jetsetters Guide to Amsterdam (Junior Jetsetters City Guides)
before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Junior Jetsetters Guide to Amsterdam (Junior Jetsetters City Guides):

Travel book for children aged 9+ with the sights and attractions of the city of Amsterdam and immediate surroundings. It lists children focused and child friendly locations in a fun way, and puts a juvenile spin on top attractions not primarily aimed at children, but possibly visited by their parents and them.

"These books certainly live up to expectations about giving children interesting and up-to-date information about popular urban destinations, but these small volumes would whet the appetite of any traveller, young or old! . . . There is everything to like about this series of travel books. Small and compact, they will fit easily into luggage, backpack or purse and are sturdy enough to make the journey with their owners! They are designed for children and are terrific for that young audience, but they are also a wealth of facts and suggestions that will appeal to anyone who wishes to travel. Tourists of all ages will benefit from taking a look at these guides and can only hope that Junior Jetsetters has plans to add many more destinations to their global 'itinerary.' Highly Recommended." -- CM Magazine

About the Author Pedro Marcelino is a Torontobased journalist and writer. He has written about travel, art and architecture for international media, and coauthored several books, including multiple Junior Jetsetters titles. Slawko Waschuk is a Torontobased publisher and travel writer. He has coauthored multiple Junior Jetsetters titles. Maurice van Tilburg is an Amsterdambased parttime illustrator and painter working out of Atelier Open on the beautiful Keizersgracht canal. His studio gallery is located in the historic city centre, where he devotes his time exploring his aesthetic musings. Maurice created all the really groovy cityscape watercolors that illustrate the Junior Jetsetters Guide to Amsterdam. Kim Sokol is a freelance artist based in Oakville, Ontario, Canada. She is a student and soon to be graduate of the illustration program at Sheridan College Institute of Technology, in Oakville. Kim has created the elaborately dressed animal characters for both the Junior Jetsetters Guide to Paris and the Junior Jetsetters Guide to Amsterdam. She has also drawn Keira and Jordi in these books.
