My husband and I research and notate the places we want to see and eat in our MapGuide. Often, this is the only book and/or map that we carry when we are out exploring. Each day we explore a different part of the city, using the maps to plan our route for the day. We love how it is compact and how it highlights the main attractions in each area. When traveling to several cities, we can only bring so many books and maps, and time and time again these are the ones that we always rely on. We have already purchased several of these. We love looking at our bookshelf and seeing these as reminders of the cities that we have traveled to.0 of 0 people found the

This opening fold-out contains a general map of Milan to help you visualize the 6 large districts discussed in this guide, and 4 pages of valuable information, handy tips and useful addresses. Discover Milan through 6 districts and 6 mapsDuomo/ Centro StoricoLa Scala/ San BabilaSant' Ambrogio/ MagentaCastello/ Quartiere CineseBrera/ Stazione CentraleTicinese/ NavigliFor each district there is a double-page of addresses (restaurants — listed in ascending order of price — cafés, bars, tearooms music venues and stores) followed by a fold-out map for the relevant area with the essential places to see (indicated on the map by a star *). These places are by no means all that Milan has to offer but to us they are unmissable. The grid-referencing system (A B2) makes it easy for you to pinpoint addresses quickly on the map.Transportation and hotels in MilanThe last fold-out consists of a transportation map and 4 pages of practical information that include a selection of hotels.

The Washington Post says, “The map guide lets you be inconspicuous: it’s as small and light as a novella, and its flip-out maps could pass as a flyer to a cool club.”“Make sure you never lose your way in a strange city. Each of the Knopf MapGuides captures its city’s pith in a package as small as a passport wallet...”– Real Simple“Knopf MapGuides are handy, practical and perfect for those of us who are slightly impaired when it comes to map-reading. You don’t have to search a huge crackling sheet with a microscopic index for one of 10,000 dots on the map...The extraordinary quality of the books’ beautiful hues and heavy paper also give these $8.95 guides an evocative quality that stands apart from the glossy, garish look of most travel books.” – Marin Independent Journal“A good, handy portable item for a quick trip” – San Francisco Chronicle“We love Knopf’s smart new map guides.” – Travel Leisure
