Babette Gallard, Paul Chinn : Lightfoot Companion to the Via Domitia Arles to Rome before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Lightfoot Companion to the Via Domitia Arles to Rome:

1 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Aaarrghhhh - no maps.....By Australian shopperOk - so it was largely my fault for not realising this is the COMPANION guide. It is a mix of local attractions along the route - but NOT the actual route. It is useless without the actual guide to the route. Also no information on accommodation or anything else. you would need to be reading two books in parallel (presumably the other book refers to the landmarks - as there is otherwise no clear way to track this). can't see many people sparing the pound to carry this...Try again for correct guide.....

The LightFoot Companion is an optional partner to the Lightfoot Guide Books, providing the additional historical and cultural information that will enhance your experience of travelling the ancient pilgrim routes of the Via Domitia and the Via Francigena.
