Genoa, and what is here is a bounty of rich options for the adventurous traveler.

Searching for the next Tuscany? Look no further than the neighbouring region of Liguria, which now has its first dedicated guidebook. (The Times) Gives an insider's perspective on the area's lush mountain-backed beaches, where the wealthy Milanese come to play in the summer. (National Geographic Traveller) About the Author. Rosie is one of the UK's leading experts on family travel and over the last twenty six years she has explored every corner of Liguria with her family and can offer an insider's view on what to do, where to eat and where to stay.
