Borch : London (England) 1:11,000 / 1:15,000 Street Map, waterproof BORCH before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised London (England) 1:11,000 / 1:15,000 Street Map, waterproof BORCH:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. since it is superior to the one she had By C.M.Tierney Two years ago the earlier version was my Bible for my first trip to London. Stuck it on my wall as I planned the various places to visit day-by-day. In fact, I just gave THAT one to my travel agent, since it is superior to the one she had. I bought the 2014 edition for my next trip in May. (Another great one is StreetWise in London.) The main features: noting of many significant sights, hotels, the tube stations, --so much information; the lamination is key, since it rained nearly every day - no effect on the map, just wipe it off eventually. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Bosch London Street Map By Grace Good map with all the street names I needed and large enough view to be able to find my way through London (along with GPS back up). Liked this edition and used it to "plot out" my trips and know approximately where I wanted to go and how many streets or blocks I would need to travel. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By westeaterrific, the best map I ever had.

London (England) 1:11,000 / 1:15,000 Street Map, waterproof BORCH This soft-laminated folded map of London in its 12th edition shows: London 1:15 000, Kew Gardens Richmond 1:35 000, Central Sights 1:11 000, Greater London

1:375 000, Airports Heathrow, Gatwick, Stansted, Public Transport London, Great Britain administrative. Sheet size 99 x 49 cm / 39 in. x 19,5 in. It is easy to fold, durable and water-repellent with a wipeable surface. The map shows hotels, museums, monuments, markets, public transport, top sights and points of interest, useful statistics, conversion charts for temperatures, weights and measurements, climate charts showing temperatures, sunshine hours, precipitation and humidity, overview maps, time zones, and much more... London is - in every sense - global! It is one of the largest and most populous cities in Europe, a centre of world trade, transport, tourism, finance, fashion and culture. London is unique in its diversity and is a melting pot of countless cultures. Its inhabitants are courteous and friendly, they contribute to making this world capital a pleasure to visit. London is served by five international airports, it has one of the oldest underground public transport systems in Europe, and - we must mention it again - the friendliest taxi drivers in the world. The vast list of sights in and around London includes several world heritage sites including the Tower of London, Westminster Palace, Westminster Abbey, Greenwich, the Royal Botanic Gardens in Kew. London also offers innumerable museums, galleries and monuments, parks, gardens, stunning architecture, trendy and traditional world-class shopping and among the best restaurants and nightlife you'll find anywhere. London swings all year round!
