The other reviews of this book are wildly overstated. The book is 60 pages, double-spaced. Each page has 2 things to do. No maps, no pictures, no logistics details like address, web site, telephone, etc. It reads like a long email from a friend, NOT a travel guide. There are some "off the beaten path" suggestions, but many are routine ("Visit the British Museum"). The typical entry is less than 100 words. I did get value from this book, and will likely try some of its suggestions, but buyer beware--this is a very thin travel guide.

Great guide book for London!!
By Jilon123
This was the perfect travel guide for our recent trip to London! It is easy to use, enjoyed the brief review of history for some of the larger sites. This book has helped me finalize my list of things to see very nicely. just awesome . i really love this book,
