Nana Ocran : London's Parks and Gardens before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised London's Parks and Gardens:

Where in London can one walk among dinosaurs, see pink flamingos on a roof garden, or cycle past deer whose ancestors were hunted by Charles I?

About the Author Nana Ocran is a freelance arts and lifestyle journalist who writes for the Time Out Group and has written for the London Evening Standard.
