Gorgeous and fun supplements to a real mapBy Cali GirlHere's the deal: these are beautifully designed, researched and executed however, the proportions and "map" qualities are way off. The listings and suggestions were spot on but finding locations was challenging. I'd definitely recommend this series for finding off the beaten path shops and restaurants but be sure your GPS works before you leave the hotel room.

Informed by on-the-ground research, Herb Lester's handy, folded guides uncover what makes a city special - its most distinctive shops, restaurants, cafés, bars, museums and galleries, whether unmissable old favourites, exciting new arrivals or overlooked treasures. Each entry comes with its own brief description, and a basic map helps the reader get their bearings and make plans. No single guide can capture London's myriad pleasures and limitless diversions. Instead savour the six different fold-out travelogues contained within, each of which explores a particular dimension of the city, encompassing places to eat, secret spots for a rendezvous and where to escape into nature. About the Author Herb Lester Associates publish guides for tourists and locals: witty, pretty, curious and opinionated. We research, write, print and distribute maps and guides to the world's great cities. We seek out the well-used and much-loved, and enjoy the extraordinary as well as the everyday. Old bookshops and new coffee shops, park benches and dive bars, hat shops and haberdashers: this is the world according to Herb Lester.
