Fionn Davenport : Lonely Planet Best of Ljubljana before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Lonely Planet Best of Ljubljana:

Beat the crowds and the hype to sweet Ljubljana. Browse for antiques and crafts, then treat yourself to divine cake in a frescoed teahouse. Wander along cobbled streets, past elaborately painted buildings, through parks and over Triple Bridge. At night, catch a gig at artist commune Metelkova, or unwind in a designer bar. Discover why people cant help falling for beloved Ljubljana with this discerning guide. Diverse Nighlife handpicked hipster bars, old-style cafs, live music venues and an eclectic mix of festivals Unique Dining candid reviews of the best spots for nouveau-Slovene cuisine, beef goulash and, yes, horse burgers To Market, To Market we show you the best markets and shops for Art Nouveau antiques, Idrija lace and painted beehive panels Easy-To-Use Maps grid-referenced fold-out maps help you get the most out of this pedestrian-friendly city

For sheer global reach and dogged research, attention must be paid to Lonely Planet' --Los Angeles Times, February 2, 2003
