Jean Bernard-Carillet : Lonely Planet Corsica (Regional Guide) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Lonely Planet Corsica (Regional Guide):

Discover CorsicaSip and ice-cold pastis in the maquis-scented garden of a south coast chambre d'hote.Test your tyres as you wind up vista-filled corniches to the hilltop hamlets of La Castagniccia.Learn to tell coppa from prisuttu as hand-cured, mountain charcuterie melts in your mouth. Splash down waterfalls and leap into natural pools while canyoning in the Massif de Bavella. In This Guide: Day-by-day coverage of walking the entire GR20, plus other stunning hikes. Full-color introduction reveals the island's natural wonders, cultural heritage and hearty cuisine. Insider tips on driving routes, activities for kids and the best places to dive, kitesurf, cycle, and horseride.

Nobody covers the world like Lonely Planet.' --New York Post, May 2004
From the Publisher
Who We Are At Lonely Planet, we see our job as inspiring and enabling travellers to connect with the world for their own benefit and for the benefit of the world at large. What We Do * We offer travellers the world's richest travel advice, informed by the collective wisdom of over 350 Lonely Planet authors living in 37 countries and fluent in 70 languages. * We are relentless in finding the special, the unique and the different for travellers wherever they are. * When we update our guidebooks, we check every listing, in person, every time. * We always offer the trusted filter for those who are curious, open minded and independent. * We challenge our growing community of travellers; leading debate and discussion about travel and the world. * We tell it like it is without fear or favor in service of the travellers; not clouded by any other motive. What We Believe We believe that travel leads to a deeper cultural understanding and compassion and therefore a better world.
