Ryan Ver Berkmoes; Karla Zimmerman : Lonely Planet The Netherlands before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Lonely Planet The Netherlands:

4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. A very disappointing Lonely Planet Guide By pat d Most Lonely Planet Guides that I have used in the past had an excellent selection of accommodations and restaurants for a range of budgets. "The Netherlands" LP guide falls far short of expectation in these areas. Their selections are unremarkable and seem to be poorly researched. Another area of disappointment is the print quality of the city map sections. The monochrome renditions are extremely hard to read and find landmarks on and are thus of little practical value to the average tourist. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Good organization, strong background information. By Kreo I haven't been to the Netherlands yet, so I'm not sure how this works as a guide, but for pre-departure planning this book is an invaluable resource. The concise culture/history sections provide fun facts and interesting tidbits about Dutch culture. Easy to navigate and very updated information. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. useful guide. By Amy Ezrini definitely found this product helpful and informative. I've been to Amsterdam several times, but this helped with some of the outer lying areas I wanted to see a lot. Also helped me find some good, off-the-beaten-path places in Amsterdam. Wish a Netherlands-Belgium guide had existed though. That would have made this book indispensable.

Nobody knows the Netherlands like Lonely Planet and our 4th edition helps you uncover the secrets of this gently beautiful country. Cycle along the canals, past sand dunes, windmills, tulips and wild national parks. Reward yourself with warm appeltaart, then learn to swallow a raw herring without flinching. Lonely Planet guides are written by experts who get to the heart of every destination they visit. This fully updated edition is packed with accurate, practical and honest advice, designed to give you the information you need to make the most of your trip. In This Guide: Inspiring color section on the best of the Netherlands. Selected coverage of the best walking, boating and cycling. Green Index pointing to sustainable listings.

Lonely Planet guides are a must-pack" --Toronto Star, February 2006. From the Publisher: Who We Are At Lonely Planet, we see our job as inspiring and enabling travellers to connect with the world for their own benefit and for the benefit of the world at large. What We Do * We offer travellers the world's richest travel advice, informed by the collective wisdom of over 350 Lonely Planet authors living in 37 countries and fluent in 70 languages. * We are relentless in finding the special, the unique and the different for travellers wherever they are. * When we update our guidebooks, we check every listing, in person, every time. * We always offer the trusted filter for those who are curious, open minded and independent. * We challenge our growing community of travellers; leading debate and discussion about travel and the world. * We tell it like it is without fear or favor in service of the travellers; not clouded by any other motive. What We Believe We believe that travel leads to a deeper cultural understanding and compassion and therefore a better world.
