LUXE City Guides : LUXE Milan (LUXE City Guides) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised LUXE Milan (LUXE City Guides):

has a few great finds that are not well know. Wish they did one for where I live.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Dont bother with itBy andreadrifffieldI was very disappointed by this guide it was just a few pieces of cardbord tiney script no maps or instructions of how to get anywhere .3 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Perfect for its target audienceBy PeripateticFocused, concise and compact, these guides are excellent if you're spending only a few days in town for business or quick holiday. Have used the Shanghai, Beijing, and Sydney guides, all had current/accurate info. This was the first European Luxe Guide I'd used, but they've managed to maintain their high standards across continents. The writing can be quite funny, and the pamphlet-format fits in a suit-jacket pocket. Probably the best indicator of its value: Colleagues in Milan found it so useful, I gave them my copy. Highly recommended.

Alfa Romeo, risotto, Giorgio, Milano! Welcome to the heart of Italian wealth and style, where the removal of sunglasses is a surgical procedure and popping to the deli without stillies is simply illegal. So, what are you waiting for, Candypants? Put your fash foot forward!

There are lots of mini guidebooks being published right now, but none as witty and packed with frank insider and witty info as these. Lightweight too. --Sunday Times - May 17, 2009Delightful, de-lovely and de-luxe. Savagely witty city guides to the hip hotels, bars, restaurants and shops for the hedonist. Sleekly designed to fold out, accordion-style, they fit in a pocket and pop back in a whizzy box --Vanity Fair On Travel - April 2008About the AuthorFamous for their ultra short, sharp and snappy reviews and highly personal and selective entries - LUXE City Guides have sold well over one million copies - no padding, no maps, no daft pictures and graphics, just super-curated, highly opinionated quickfire speed reads from resident editors and contributors who REALLY know their city, so you can spend time enjoying the city not head down in a book. Packed from concertina cover to cover with snazz, snark and snap, if it's in LUXE, it's IN - enough said.
