Going to the South of France? Don't buy anything in Provence and the French Riviera until you read this book! If you're traveling to the South of France, you want to go home with a special souvenir: a beautiful piece of pottery, a handmade quilt, or one of the region's famous artisanal perfumes. But selecting what to buy can be an intimidating experience. How do you know if you're buying something authentic, something made locally and in a traditional way? How do you determine if you've fallen prey to one of the region's many tourist traps? The South of France boasts some of the world's most captivating artisanal traditions. Here's what you need to know about them. Laura Morelli leads you beyond the souvenir shops for an immersive cultural experience that you won't find in any other guidebook. This indispensable guide includes practical tips for locating the most authentic goods in one of the busiest tourist destinations in the world. Packed with useful information on quality and value, and with a comprehensive resource guide, Laura Morelli's Authentic Arts: Provence the French Riviera is the perfect guide for anyone wanting to bring home the unique traditions of southern France. Artisans of Provence the French Riviera is the companion to this book, bringing you inside the workshops of several dozen of the most accomplished makers of jewelry, ceramics, textiles, olive oil soap, woodcrafts, and other treasures. Put both books together and you'll be among the most knowledgeable travelers in France! Laura Morelli has set out to make you an expert in handmade crafts. --American Style Magazine
