Compact, but a little small By MJI love the way this map folds up, but it is a little small for my middle aged eyes. My daughter had no problem, however. It's not meant to be used dozens of times, since the paper will begin to tear at the creases. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Best Invention Since Mapping Itself! By ATW PopOut Maps are great! I have been using them for years. They stash in a small purse or pocket easily. They are easy to unfold and view on the street, in a restaurant or on a subway. And, as small as they are, they contain all of the useful information you need. I wish they had them for every city large and small.
