From EarBOOKS : Mallorca: The Sound Of An Island (Book 4-CD set) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Mallorca: The Sound Of An Island (Book 4-CD set):

This wonderful book and CD collection is a journey on the island of light, showing Mallorca in its most beautiful colors. From romantic fincas to hidden bays, to the big city pulse of its capital Palma, you will get a bright panoramic view of the most loved island in the world. Four CDs featuring classic Spanish flamenco, the famous preludes composed by Frederic Chopin during his time in Mallorca, modern Spanish pop music, and chill-out sounds from the beach clubs are all included here.

About the Author Gudrun Petersen followed traditional on-the-job training from 1989 to 1991 to become a photographer. She has been working as a freelance photographer ever since, mainly for picture agency Joker. Her photos have been published in German magazines and newspapers, Der Spiegel, Süddeutsche Zeitung, FAZ, Focus, Financial Times Deutschland, Greenpeace, Wirtschaftswoche, Wochenspiegel, and they have also featured in TV programs on ARD, Arte, NDR, WDR, ZDF. More extensive work includes a Villeroy Boch porcelain edition with childrens motifs as well as an illustrated book about Aachen in 2004. Her photos have featured in exhibitions in Cologne, Aachen, Bonn, Brussels and Wiesbaden. She lives in Aachen and Hamburg, Germany.
